

Community Policing Development Program

Summary: The goal of the Community Policing Development Program (CPD) is to advance the practice of community policing in law enforcement agencies through training and technical assistance, demonstration projects, the development of innovative community policing strategies, guidebooks, and promising practices that are national in scope and responsive to the topic requirements.

Agency: U.S. Department of Justice

Eligibility: All public governmental entities (local governments, police departments, council of governments, etc.), for-profit and non-profit organizations, and community groups are eligible for the CPD Program.

Funding: The CPD Program award range is between $100,000 - $500,000 per entity.

Cost Match: No cost match is required.

Deadline: Applications are due by May 28th, 2019 and must be submitted through Grants.gov.

MAIN$PRING SPOTLIGHT

Examples of Eligible CPD Projects

- Increasing capacity for change
- Designing officer safety dashboards
- Implementing school safety recommendations
- Translating best practices for small/rural agencies
- Improving coordination
- Developing new skill building programs
- Training for advanced public safety

NOPEC encourages its members to consider this opportunity and share it with eligible entities within their communities.

Stay tuned for our next edition of the Funding Main$pring in May!

As your trusted energy advisor, NOPEC presents the Funding Main$pring. Each month, NOPEC members will find the latest funding opportunities to help enhance their communities and improve their bottom lines.

April 2019